

While importing my iTunes playlists, Traktor unexpectedly quits.

There is known issue with importing playlists that use "illegal characters" in the name. These characters : / \ , are used by the operating system and will cause Traktor to unexpectedly quit.

The workaround is to rename your playlists within iTunes and then re-import them into Traktor.