

Why is new ATI DVD player of MMC 8.1 not available for 3D Prophet AIW 7500 and 3D Prophet AIW 8500DV ?

ATI released a new MultiMedia Center version 8.1 that benefits of a new DVD player. This one is only provided for free to owners of 3D Prophet AIW 9000Pro (downloadable from <http://www.hercules.com/> and requires the original CD).

Owners of 3D Prophet AIW 7500 or 3D Prophet AIW 8500DV can still use their previous free DVD player and upgrade the rest of the Catalyst driver suite purchase the new MMC8.1 CD directly from www.ati.com web site (US and Canadian) or www.videocapturecard.com/ati.html (for the others). Hercules may provide similar solution to the other customers very soon.
