

I am not able to play any songs that I have downloaded from the iTunes music store.

These files are locked and you cannot play them because of the digital rights management from Apple.

acc files you have converted yourself or which did not come from the iTunes music store should play.